IN ALL SPORTS, there's a lot more to the game than scoring points or making the play offs and winning championships. For every Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, there is a Tommy Ivan in the background scouring the bushes, signing youngsters, making trades and preparing for the next year.

The Black Hawks were in dire straits when Ivan was hired away from a nice cozy setup at Detroit. Jim Norris, one of the most knowledgeable men in hockey because of his many years in playing and watching with his famous father, saw the hand writing on the wall when he and his partner, Arthur Wirtz purchased the Hawk franchise. More than players, the Hawks needed a man who could build from the bottom, take over the myriad of detail work that goes with running a major league franchise.

Ivan had just finished winning his sixth straight N.H.L. title and his third Stanley Cup when Norris offered him the challenge of moving into the front office.

It took five years as Tommy predicted but in the fifth year, 1958-59 the Hawks had moved out of the cellar to third place. They finished there the next three years and picked up the coveted Stanley Silver in 1960-61. Last year they moved up another notch and missed winning their first League title by 1 point (half a game).

But more important there is a solid foundation under the Hawks with strong farm clubs and a solid amateur organization. Over a dozen of the current Black Hawk team are home grown products due to Ivan's constant scouting, talking, begging, prodding to sign the best of the youngsters and to talk the other teams out of men Tommy thinks can make it. Astute trades for men like Glenn Hall, Bill Hay, Murray Balfour, Ab McDonald and others, added to the farm development of the Hulls, Mikitas, Pilotes, and DeJordys speak for Ivan's ability as the best front office man since his old mentor at Detroit, Jack Adams. Ivan and his wife, Dorothy live in Skokie.

WILLIAM T. REAY

COACH

HOCKEY is not just a job for Billy Reay, the Black Hawks' new coach, it's life itself. It's food, drink, recreation and livelihood for this balding, but comparatively young man about hockey.

Last New Year's Eve when Billy was coaching Buffalo, the team had the night off and his family came down from Toronto to be with him. So, they made a big night of it. . . Drove over to Rochester and watched a hockey game.

His wife, Clare, will tell you, "When we go to a hockey game, we chat before the game, after the game and between periods. But during the game itself, we wouldn't dare speak to Billy. He's too busy concentrating on the game to even hear you."

Reay, at 45 (born Aug. 21, 1918) looks like a successful business man in any profession you might name. His broad grin belies his inner feelings when he's piloting his team during a game.

A strict disciplinarian, he has gained the respect of his players in his years of coaching (the last three with Black Hawk farm clubs) because he respects the dignity of his men. They may be called on the carpet, but not necessarily at the moment they have sinned. It might be the next day, it might be the next week. But Billy sooner or later lets them know that he didn't miss their infraction.

Reay played eight years with the Montreal Canadiens on the line with Bernie Geoffrion. His best years were 46-47 and 48-49 when he scored 22 goals.

He coached Toronto for one season and then joined the Hawks' organization. He took the Sault Ste. Marie team to the playoff finals three years ago. At Buffalo he went to the finals his first season and last year won the league title by 10 games and then captured the play offs.

Billy and his wife have a son, Billy, 12, and a daughter, Adele, 19. They make their home in Toronto in the off season.

NICK "DOC" GAREN

TRAINER

NICK "DOC" GAREN has been looking after the physical welfare of the Black Hawk players the past 18 seasons.

A native New Yorker, Nick joined the club back in 1945 after a two-year hitch as a medical corpsman in the U. S. Army.

Even at that time, Garen's qualifications for the job as an N.H.L. trainer were good.

He took a 3-year course at the New York School of Massage and Physiotherapy and studied chiropractics before going into the service. His two years in the medical corps added immeasurably to his knowledge of anatomy and medicine. Then followed four semesters at the National Chiropractic College in Chicago, plus an extension course in psychology at Indiana University.

Nick is just one of many who feels that much of the average pro hockey player's physical troubles are directly connected with his mental outlook on this roughest of all sports.

Garen is considered by players all over the NHL as the "best trainer in hockey." His ability is proven best by the long consecutive game streaks rolled up by Glenn Hall, Pierre Pilote and others because Nick keeps their muscles loose and returns them to action fast after the various injuries that are inevitable in a rough game like hockey.

MURRAY LEWIS "ROCKY" BALFOUR

RIGHT WING

Shoots right 5'9" 178 lbs.

Born: Regina, Sask., Aug. 24, 1936

Home: Regina, Sask.

MURRAY BALFOUR was purchased by the Black Hawks from the Montreal Canadiens at the start of the 1959-60 season.

The soft-smiling, stockily-built right winger hustled his way into stardom and was an important cog on the "Million Dollar" line including Red Hay at center and Bobby Hull at left wing.

This line had much to do with the Hawks' success the past three seasons. It was during the Stanley Cup playoffs in the spring of 1961 that Balfour suffered a broken arm, and while the Hawks managed to come through, Balfour's arm did not. Adversity stalked Murray during the summer months. The arm had to be re-broken and the arm re-set.

Balfour played his junior hockey with Regina Pats, and Montreal scouts signed him to a pro contract in 1957-58, but shipped him to Montreal Royals for seasoning. Following the 1958-59 season which he spent with Rochester, the Hawks grabbed him.

In his rookie year with the Hawks, Balfour had the keenest shooting eye in the N.H.L., scoring 18 goals on only 83 shots. In 1960-61 he worked himself up to a 20-goal man, scoring 21 markers.

Murray is not the most polished of skaters, but his free-wheeling style gets the job done in a convincing fashion.

Murray has never quite regained his 1960-61 stride but everyone knows what he can do. All he has to do is find himself. It is hoped Billy Reay will be able to get Murray back in stride and put the $1,000,000 line back together.

Murray is single.

GOAL

Born: St. Hyacinthe, Que.,

Nov. 12, 1938

Home: Montreal, Que.

HIGH-STRUNG DENIS DeJORDY the newest member of the Hawks' two-man goalie combination has a habit of breaking sticks after losing a hard fought game. He plays with such intensity that he gets wound-up to the point where he often cries when his team drops a tough one.

It will be something new to Chicago and the N.H.L., both, when coach Billy Reay alternates the goal tending chores between DeJordy and Glenn Hall. Seldom is a team fortunate enough to have two goalies the caliber of Hall and DeJordy at the same time.

Denis was the only unanimous choice on the American League all star team for the 1962-63 season. He also won the Most Valuable Player Award. He had six shutouts, and 187 goals against him for a season average of 2.79. During the handful of games he played for the Hawks when Hall was injured last winter, DeJordy had only 12 pucks whiz by him for an average of 2.40.

AUTREY ERICKSON

DEFENSE

Shoots left 6' 194 lbs.

Born: Lethbridge, Alta., Jan. 25, 1938

Home: Lethridge, Alberta

ANOTHER YOUNGSTER who will be no stranger to the Hawk fans is Autrey Erickson who played on Stadium ice with the Boston Bruins in 1959-60 and 1960-61 and appeared in four games with the Hawks toward the end of last season.

Erickson was obtained from Boston in the summer of 1962 and farmed out to Buffalo. He was recalled to the Hawks when injuries plagued their defensive forces.

In his two regular seasons with Boston, he scored 3 goals and 12 assists and had 98 minutes in penalties during 126 games. In the few games he played with the Hawks last season, Erickson played outstanding hockey, resulting in his call to report to the big team at training time.

Autrey is quiet but a tremendously capable athlete who simply does his job in a steady efficient way. He is a hustling defenseman with all the speed, physical make-up and endurance necessary for him to land a permanent spot with the Hawks.

Erickson's defensive ability helped Denis DeJordy in his quest of the American League's Most Valuable title last year.

REGINALD "REG" FLEMING

Shoots left 5'10" 185 lbs.

Born: Montreal, Que., April 21, 1936

Home: Montreal, Que.

THE WORD "Utility" is used a lot in various sports in reference to a player who can be shifted from one position to another and plays them all well. This description fits Reg Fleming to a Tee. He's outstanding as a forward or as a defenseman because he plays with his heart. He's rugged and likes lots of action.

Reg is controlling himself better now, but hasn't lost any of his spirit. When he first broke into the National League he seemed to be fighting as much as skating. In three separate games between the Hawks and the Rangers, a few seasons ago, Reggie splattered Dean Prentice, Eddie Shack and Jack McCartan respectively, but not respectably. Last season he swung the ash shillelagh at the head of Giles Tremblay, stunning the Montreal right winger to the tune of 45 stitches.

During the off-season he calls on local merchants, selling food items for a Chicago broker. He also finds time to play golf, listen to Hi-Fi and watch the Cub home games at Wrigley Field.

GLENN HENRY HALL

Shoots left 5'11" 160 lbs.

Born: Humboldt, Sask., Oct. 3, 1931

Home: Edmonton, Alta.

GLENN HENRY HALL, or "Mr. Goalie" as Chicago fans call this youthful looking veteran, rates as one of the all-time great goaltenders in the history of the N.H.L.

Hall, quiet, unassuming, with an enviable record, gathered in still more honors last season, in an already fabulous career.

He extended his N.H.L. consecutive games-played-record to an astounding 552 games for a total of 30,120 minutes before it was broken November 7, 1962.

Back in 1955-56, while in Detroit, Hall won the Calder Trophy, and also led the league in shutouts with 12.

Hall learned to stop rubber in the Detroit farm system. He started out with Indianapolis of the A.H.L. in 1951-52 and was called up to the Wings for 6 games in '52-53, then shipped to Edmonton of the Western League where he put in three seasons. He got another 2-game tryout with Detroit in 1954-55, and the following season took over the netminding duties from Terry Sawchuk who was traded to Boston Bruins.

The Hawks, seeking a top-flight goalie turned to Detroit and shelled out a bundle of cash and four players to get Hall, along with Ted Lindsay, prior to the start of the 1957-58 campaign.

Hall promptly repaid his new employers by being named on the N.H.L. First All-Star Team. The Chicago management recognizes the agile Hall as the key man in the team's surge to playoff contention the past four seasons.

Glenn won the Vezina Trophy for the best goalie for the first time last season with an average 2.51 including 5 shut outs. He also made the 1st team All-Stars for the 4th time in his career. He had been on the second team three other years.

He's married.

MURRAY HALL

CENTER

Shoots right 5'11" 174 lbs.

Born: Kirkland Lake, Ont.,

Nov. 24, 1940

Home: Oakville, Ont.

A FACE that will not be new to Chicago hockey fans will be that of Murray Hall. He made two brief appearances with the Hawks during the 1961-62 season. At that time he showed promise, but needed a little more minor league training. He now has that under his belt along with a fine scoring record.

Although basically a Westerner, Hall played most of his Junior hockey in the Eastern part of Canada. He started off with the Dixie Beehives in 1957-58 and was elevated to the St. Catharines Teepees the next season and was credited with being a major factor in the Teepees Cup winning march. In his second season with this club, he averaged nearly 2 points a game and only appeared in 40 games. He had 29 goals and 39 assists.

He continued his 20 goals per year pace in the 1961-62 season at Buffalo and again last year at St. Louis. While with the Bisons in Buffalo, Murray collected 41 points with 20 goals and 21 assists. At St. Louis he tapped-in 29 goals and had 69 assists for 98 points.

Small, but fast, Murray can answer the Hawks' biggest problem, which is a lack of good center ice men.

WILLIAM CHARLES "RED" HAY

Shoots left 6'3" 190 lbs.

Born: Saskatoon, Sask., Dec. 9, 1935

Home: Calgary, Alta.

WILLIAM "RED" HAY, one of the few American College grads to make the N.H.L., is considered one of the slickest stickhandlers and playmakers in the game today.

The big pivotman on the Hawks' "Million Dollar" line has been probably the one most responsible for the record-tying 50-goals-in-a-season set by his linemate Bobby Hull in 1961-62. He's also the "quarterback" on the Hawks' power play, providing the leadership and spark that makes it tick.

Red, although Canadian born, starred for the Colorado University team, and refutes the experts' claims that a youth just can't spend four years in an American college and expect to meet N.H.L. standards.

The rangy redhead has done just that and in no small way. His first season with the Hawks saw him register 55 points and he was voted the Calder award (rookie of the year). In his sophomore season he collected 59 points and the next year 63 total points.

Red had a "poor" season for him last year scoring only 45 points but still showed signs of being the important pivot for the big plays.

Hay's amateur record with the Regina Pats won him a scholarship to Colorado U. Upon graduation Montreal signed him to a pro contract. However, he got lost among a lengthy list of impressive candidates at Canadiens training camp in 1958 and was loaned to Calgary, a Hawks farm team in W.H.L. He was so impressive with the Stampeders that Chicago shelled out $25,000 for him after the 1958-59 season.

Hay comes from an athletic family. His father, Charlie Hay, was an outstanding goalie, playing for Saskatchewan U. back in 1920. His mother, the former Florence "String" Miller, was a top Canadian track and field star. Earl Miller, Red's uncle, played for the Hawks from 1928 to 1931.

He's married, and makes his summer home in Calgary where he works as an engineer for a Canadian oil company.

WAYNE JAMES "RAY" HILLMAN

Shoots left 6' 195 lbs.

Born: Kirkland Lake, Ont.,

Nov. 13, 1938

Home: Ft. Erie, Ont.

WAYNE HILLMAN is just another of the many products of the St. Catharines TeePees Jrs., a Hawks farm team, to make his way up to the big time.

The youngest of three brothers in pro hockey, Wayne was expected to become a major league great when he left the TeePees to join the Buffalo Bisons of the A.H.L. for the 1959-60 season. Instead, he was used sparingly in his first two seasons and his play, at times, was disappointing. There were doubts expressed as to whether this was the same Hillman who set the Ontario Hockey Association on fire in 1957-58 and again in 1958-59. Some went so far as to blame Wayne's attitude for his shortcomings.

A stint with the Black Hawks during the 1960-61 Stanley Cup playoffs made Hillman realize the advantages gained by playing in the big league.

Then Hillman got serious and became one of the more diligent workers at training camp with the full knowledge that his hockey future was at stake.

Last season Wayne proved one of the mainstays along with Pilote, Vasko, and MacNeil, on the best defensive team in the NHL. He also registered some timely goals and served notice he figures to be around a long time.

ROBERT MARVIN (BOBBY) HULL

LEFT WING

Shoots left 5'10" 195 lbs.

Born: Pointe Anne, Ont., Jan. 3, 1939

Home: Pointe Anne, Ont.

THE RECORD BOOKS tell a lot about Mr. Robert Hull.

There's the 1961-62 season when he tied the all-time record for goals in one year with 50, joining only Maurice Richard and Bernie Geoffrion among those who had turned the trick.

But, last year's playoffs proved Bobby was more than just a great player. His God-given gifts of size, speed, and hard shooting ability make him exceptional and his records are no surprise to any one who sees him for the first time on the ice.

Bobby Hull proved with a banged up shoulder and a busted nose that he is one of the all time great "competitors" of all sportdom. First, Bobby was hobbled at the end of the season by a bad shoulder and it was questionable that he would even see action in the playoffs.

But Bobby pleaded for the right to play and proceeded to score two big goals as the Hawks won 5-4. In the second game he got another goal and assist before he suffered a broken nose when hit with a stick.

He missed game No. 3 but was miraculously back in action for the 4th game and scored the Hawks' only goal. Then he got another one in Game No. 5. In the final game in Detroit with the Hawks down 3-2 in the series, Bobby scored three goals and missed by inches getting a couple more as the Hawks lost 7-4.

Jim Norris, Hawks' Co-Owner said after the game, "Hull showed me the greatest hockey I ever saw, and I've been going to games with my dad for longer than I care to remember."

So, the fact that Bobby got eight goals in only five games is a good story. But the real test came in the fact that few human beings would have been out of a hospital bed, much less playing hockey.

To show how great Bobby is, he has scored 182 goals in only six seasons for third place among all-time Hawks and 380 points for fourth place. He is only three points behind MUSH March in third and will probably move into that spot by the end of the first week.

At only 24, he should be good for at least six years and probably 10 more. Thus, with his current average of 30 goals per year, he is almost certain to crack the 500 barrier and join Richard and the great Gordie Howe.

However, if Bobby should decide to quit tomorrow, Chicago fans will never forget his performance in last year's Stanley Cup series. Nor will his teammates.

No, girls, he's married.

ALLISTER W. "AL" MAC NEIL

Shoots left 5'10" 185 lbs.

Born: Sydney, N. H., Sept. 27, 1935

Home: Sydney, Nova Scotia

WITH eight years of pro-hockey behind him, Al MacNeil is looking toward this season as his big one. Al is a plugger who doesn't mind roughing-up a player or two to break up a play. Although his tactics are rough he manages to keep clear of the penalty box consistently. He has spent only 173 minutes in National League penalty boxes which isn't excessive for a defenseman of his caliber.

Al came to the Hawks from Montreal in 1961-62 in a deal in which Toronto traded MacNeil and a pretty good stack of cash for Wayne Hicks. Montreal used Al on their Hull-Ottawa team the season before after acquiring him from Toronto.

It was while he was playing with the Montreal farm team that he earned the distinction of being the outstanding defenseman of the E.P.H.L.

Shoots right 5'10" 165 lbs.

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.,

Aug. 17, 1939

Home: Simcoe, Ont.

ALTHOUGH christened Ronald, he's known to everybody as Chico.

In 1960-61, his first season as a pro, Maki was voted the rookie award of the American Hockey League as a member of the Buffalo Bisons, a Hawk farm team. He scored a total of 72 points—30 goals and 42 assists—placing him 11th in the league scoring. At season's end the Hawks called on Chico for Stanley Cup duty and in 2 games conducted himself admirably.

In the 1961-62 season he started out with Buffalo and when the Hawks ran into injuries, was called upon again. Although he played in 15 N.H.L. contests and scored 4 goals and 10 assists. He finished out the season with the Bisons and was a big factor in their drive to the A.H.L. finals.

Used sparingly last year under Rudy Pilous, Maki scored only 7 goals and 17 assists. But there are those who believe Chico could become another Stan Mikita. Having played for Billy Reay at Buffalo, he might fit into the new Hawk coach's style and find himself this year.

Maki is a product of the Hawk farm system in every sense of the term. He started out with the Simcoe, Ont., Gunners in Junior "B" hockey, then moved up to St. Catharines Tee-Pees in the tough Ontario Junior "A" Association. During four seasons with the TeePees, Chico helped his team to the finals twice, and in his last season with them (1959-60), led them to the Junior Championship of Canada.

He's married and makes his home in Simcoe where in the summer months he's employed by the C. P. Railway.

Shoots left 6'2" 190 lbs.

Born: Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 18, 1936

Home: Winnipeg, Man.

ALVIN "AB" McDONALD was acquired by the Black Hawks from the Montreal Canadiens in the summer of 1960 in a nine-player swap which also included Reg Fleming, Cec Hoekstra and Bob Courcy. The latter two are now in the minors. The Hawks gave up Glen Skov, Terry Gray and a bundle of cash.

The first thing the Hawks did was to put Ab at left wing on the Scooter line with Stan Mikita at center and Ken Wharram at right wing. Next to the Million Dollar Line they are the best scoring unit the Hawks have, with McDonald contributing his share of goals. He accounted for 17 tallies in 1960-61 and 22 markers 1961-62. He had 20 goals and 41 assists last year third only to Mikita and Hull.

McDonald, strangely enough, played his junior hockey for St. Catharines Teepees. But Montreal snagged him. They farmed him out to Rochester of the A.H.L. where he spent the 1956-57 and '57-58 seasons.

The Canadiens called him up for the 1958-59 campaign, but Ab found it difficult to nail down a regular berth. In 1959-60 he was again kept from playing regular and wasn't surprised when he was traded.

Normally a shy and silent type, Ab, since coming to the Hawks, has shrugged off an inferiority complex that plagued him with Montreal. He's a sound aggressive player, a very good checker and possessor of a hard, accurate shot.

One of the biggest men on the squad, many think Ab has never done as well as he could. Maybe this is the year for him to hit that 35 goal mark.

He's married.

JACK MCKENZIE wore a Black Hawk uniform for 32 games in 1958-59 and went to Detroit in the big trade at the end of that season. The following year he played in 59 games for the Red Wings, but saw action in only 16 games in the 1960-61 season before being shipped to Hershey.

He was only 19 when he saw action with the Hawks five years ago. Jack has gained a world of experience since then and has become a fine stick handler with a deadly goal shot. Two seasons ago he scored 30 goals and was credited with 29 assists while playing in 58 games. Last season he was traded to Buffalo where he slipped the puck past the goalies 35 times and gathered 48 assists.

Sports writers in American League cities claim he is the best wingman to have ever played in that circuit.

In the off-season he makes his home in Alberta and is a professional cowboy, roping calves at the big-time rodeos throughout the West.

STANLEY "STAN" MIKITA

CENTER

Shoots right 5'9" 165 lbs.

Born: Sokolce, Czech., May 20, 1940

Home: St. Catharines, Ont.

ORDINARILY a little guy like Stan Mikita should have trouble being noticed with such greats as Bobby Hull, Glenn Hall and Pierre Pilote on the same squad. But our boy Stash doesn't take a back seat even to his own teammates as proven by his torrid pace last season when he racked up 31 goals and 45 assists for third place in the N.H.L. and 14 more points than his blond teammate, Mr. Hull. Stanley's rough and tumble hockey performances come naturally. Born in Czechoslovakia, Stan has had to fight his way to the top in anything he did. And his scoring ability has made him a marked man around the league for some of the burly defensemen, but most of them have learned that his size is no deterrent when Stan wants to fight back.

During the past summer Stan married Jill Cerney of Berwyn who is expected to be a steady influence on his flamboyant personality.

Two years ago Stan set a playoff mark with 6 goals and 15 assists to break Gordie Howe's playoff mark of 20 points set in 1955. Last year's playoffs were somewhat of a disappointment to Stan. Plagued by injuries he scored three goals and only two assists.

But Stash made the All-Star 1st team for the season which means $2,000, but more important, proved that the Hawks have more than just Bobby Hull when it comes to super stars. For that's what Stan must be classed along with, the Howes, Hulls, Mahovliches and Bathgates.

Mikita came from his native Czechoslovakia when he was only eight. Lived with an uncle, Joe, in St. Catharines. He found that he had to learn to skate to "belong".

Stan has scored a few more goals each year he has been with the Hawks, garnering 8 his first full year 1959-60, 19 the next, 25 the next and 31 last season. At that rate Stan should come close to the 40 goal mark this season and he's only 23.

ROBERT RONALD "RON" MURPHY

Shoots left 5'11" 185 lbs.

Born: Hamilton, Ont., April 10, 1933

Home: Mount Hope, Ont.

IN EVERY SPORT there seems to be one player who has all kinds of stumbling blocks to fall over before things really seem to smooth out. Ron Murphy, the Hawks' big left winger, is one of those guys.

His first year in the National League with the Rangers he was suspended, then shipped out to the Western League. Upon his return to the Rangers the following season, he was sent away again. This time to the Providence Reds of the American League.

After his return back to New York at the start of the 1957-58 season, the Hawks obtained him in an exchange deal that sent Hank Ciesla to the Rangers. Since being with the Hawks, Ron has played some-times-brilliant hockey, but has been plagued with a series of injuries with the exception of the 1960-61 season when he played in every game of the 70 game schedule and scored 21 goals and 19 assists.

Ron's speed and skill was beginning to count again last year until injuries stopped him at 15 goals and 21 assists and kept him benched during the playoff series.

ERIC PAUL "NESTER" NESTERENKO

Shoots right 6'1" 185 lbs.

Born: Flin Flon, Man., Oct. 31, 1933

Home: Evanston, Ill.

ERIC "ELBOWS" NESTERENKO has been one of hockey's enigmas. He's a strange man, a loner, a man with ideas of his own. He has played the game that way, and the Hawks have gone along with him and it's quite clear now that their patience has been rewarded.

The rangy right-winger spent three frustrating seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs, who, at that time, were looking for a goal-scorer and leader. Eric simply didn't possess that kind of talent and the Leafs finally gave up on him and shipped him to Winnipeg of the Western League. Hawk scouts watched him and were convinced he still had plenty of good hockey left in him.

When the Leafs failed to protect him in the 1956 N.H.L. draft the Hawks stepped in and claimed him for the $15,000 price tag.

Nester immediately rewarded the Hawks with a 20-goal season. Then followed two semesters when he collected 16 and 13 goals. But in both of these campaigns Eric commuted between his home base, London, Ont., where he attended Western Ontario University and wherever the Hawks were playing. The student Hawks era ended in 1960-61 and Nester came through with 19 goals for the year.

Last season he managed but 15 goals, but Nester's primary duties were to shadow the big guns of the opposition. He pursued them both with the insistence of a process server. Nobody in the league did a more thorough job of extracting the value of his check than he did.—More important, Nester shared penalty-killing duties with Reg Fleming and Bob Turner, and this trio rated tops in that department.

Yes, a great deal has been said about the enigmatic Eric since he scored two spectacular goals in his big league debut and was hailed as another Gordie Howe and Jean Beliveau. Some of it has been muttered by coaches and players alike, who have found his profound thinking as hard to follow as his goalward rushes.

PIERRE PAUL "PETE" PILOTE

Shoots left 5'10" 165 lbs.

Born: Kengami, Que., Dec. 11, 1931

Home: Fort Erie, Ont.

ALTHOUGH PIERRE PILOTE runs a laundromat in St. Catharines, Ont., he's far from being a wash-out as a National League Defenseman. He was awarded the James Norris trophy symbolizing the best defenseman of the league and was also named to the 1st All-Star team for the 1962-63 season.

Playing in the All Star game will be nothing new to Pete. He has seen action with the second team the past two years.

Red Grange had hung up his cleats before Pete was born, but, Pete has the old Grange hip action on the narrow blades of a pair of skates. Grange used to give a hip to an approaching defenseman and then pull it away and keep going, but Pilote gives a hip to sprawl his opponent to the ice and takes it back quick enough to grab the puck and move along. At only 165 lbs., he's the lightest defenseman in the league.

Pilote is not afraid to mix it with any opponent; his penalty record proves this. He has averaged 100 minutes in the sin-bin per season and hit his all-time high in 1960-61 with 160 minutes. Even with all the bruising punishment he hands out, he has managed to escape serious injuries until last season when he was out of action for 11 games. Before this he had accumulated a total of 376 consecutive games.

DOUGLAS GARNET ROBINSON

Born: St. Catharines, Ont.

Aug. 27, 1940

Home: St. Catharines, Ont.

THE ROOKIE of the year at Buffalo last year, Doug Robinson is the type of hockey player that, according to Billy Reay: "looks like he's doing nothing out there. Then some one asks who got the goals and you have to say that Robinson got one or two or even three."

It was Doug's 19:59 shot in the sixth game of the playoffs that tied the score and forced an overtime. Then he proceeded to score the winning goal against Hershey and keep Buffalo alive.

Robby scored 36 goals and 37 assists in his first season with Buffalo which helped the team go 10 games in front of all competition during the season as well as capture the playoffs.

Doug is studying history and physical education at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ont. during the summers and hopes to teach when he retires from playing.

Made second team all-stars in American league.

A good softball player, a game he uses to keep in shape during off season when not commuting to college, some 35 miles from his home.

EDWARD CHARLES VAN IMPE

Shoots left 5'10" 175 lbs.

Born: Saskatoon, Sask.,

May 27, 1940

Home: Saskatoon, Sask.

FANS IN BUFFALO loved the bone-crushing methods of Ed Van Impe stopping the enemies offensive march. Black Hawk supporters will learn to like Ed and will appreciate his stubborn stand against opposing puck carriers. Van Impe is in every play and makes himself felt.

Besides guarding his share of the ice, Ed is a good stick handler. Last year at Buffalo, he shot three goals and gathered 12 assists for a total of 15 points.

At 23, Van Impe is breaking into the big league and at an age that should give him many years in the Black Hawks defensive forces. He'll round out one of the best groups the Hawks have ever iced when he teams up with Young, Vasko, Pilote, MacNeil and Hillman.

ELMER "MOOSE" VASKO

Shoots left 6'3" 210 lbs.

Born: Duparquet, Que., Dec. 11, 1935

Home: St. Catharines, Ont.

ELMER "MOOSE" VASKO, king-sized defenseman, has developed into one of the most colorful players in the game.

At 6'3" and 210 lbs., Vasko is the biggest player in the National Hockey League. Moose has proved that he's not only large, fast and skillful as a defenseman, but he has that "something extra" that makes him invaluable to the Hawks. His headlong rushes down the ice, reminiscent of a moose ripping through the underbrush, have a habit of demoralizing the opposition, as well as lifting the fans out of their seats.

Perhaps because of his size and strength, opponents are wary of tangling with Vasko, which explains the fact he has drawn only 361 minutes in penalties in six full seasons of N.H.L. play, one of the lowest totals in the league for a defenseman.

Vasko is a graduate of the Black Hawks farm system. He helped St. Catharines TeePees win the Memorial Cup, emblematic of the Junior Championship of Canada. He had a four-game try-out with Buffalo Bisons of the A.H.L. in 1955-56 before moving up to the Hawks the following season. It wasn't easy for Moose during the first three seasons in the big time because he had to wear a special shoulder harness to protect an old injury and yet, despite the handicap, he not only thrived but became the toast of the N.H.L. fans who liked his dash and spirit. He has undergone surgery to correct the chronic injury and his play improved vastly.

The hulking, brush-cut blond is teamed with diminutive Pierre Pilote (5'10" and 165 lbs.) to form one of the oddest, yet most effective defense combinations. Putting it simply, they are the "long and short of it" among N.H.L. rearguards.

He's married.

KENNETH MALCOLM "KEN" WHARRAM

Shoots right 5'9" 155 lbs.

Born: Ferris, Ont., July 2, 1933

Home: North Bay, Ont.

TWO SUPERLATIVES can be applied aptly to diminutive Ken Wharram—he's not only one of the smallest performers in the National Hockey League, but also one of the gamest.

Standing a mere 5'9" and weighing but 155 lbs., Wharram certainly has no excess brawn at his call, but has to rely on his speed and finesse for success against much bigger opponents.

After being kicked around the minor leagues for 5 years, Ken, after his third trip to a Hawk training camp, finally made the grade.

Wharram had been in the Chicago organization since 1949. While a member of the Gault juniors he received a one-game tryout with the Hawks in the spring of 1952. Then followed a 29-game stint in the '53-54 season. He had another "look-see" in 1955-56, but that was all.

This may have been enough to dishearten anyone, but not Wharram. He took the breaks in stride and kept on trying. Persistence paid off, for he got another chance in 1958-59 and he was ready for the challenge. While he scored only 10 goals that season, his spirit and determination were a deciding factor in keeping him with the team.

However, it took even more fight for Wharram to overcome some of the injuries which plagued him. He suffered two jaw fractures. He broke his right jaw in February 1959, then an identical break shelved him again in 1960. Last season he suffered a severe groin injury and was sidelined for 8 games. But he finally cracked the charmed circle with 20 goals.

He's married.

HOWARD JOHN (HOWIE) YOUNG

DEFENSE

Shoots right 5'11" 190 lbs.

Born: Toronto, Ont., Aug. 2, 1937

Home: Detroit, Mich.

HOWIE YOUNG is no stranger to the Stadium or Black Hawk fans. He'll be remembered for his aggressiveness and for his many missions to the penalty box while playing for Detroit against the Hawks.

A rough and ready rearguard, Young has the ability to help Chicago's defensive corps and also to instill fire into the team. Young has all the physical equipment to make it big with the Hawks and to erase his reputation as a "Bad-Man." A strong skater with superb coordination, Young can handle the puck like a forward. It is his all-out competitive spirit that alternately is good and bad for him, good in that it makes a die-hard fighter for his side; bad that it causes him to lose control and get involved in hassles which in the past have resulted in hours of penalties and days of suspensions. His electrifying manner of play could bring back memories of such former Hawk greats as Johnny Mariucci and Earl Seibert.

Young became Chicago property in a trade with Detroit last Spring. A native of Toronto, he played his junior in Kitchener, where his coach was "Black Jack" Stewart, former all-time great Detroit defenseman whose stiff body checking style rubbed off on Young. After a year in the old Quebec League in his first season as a pro, the Canadiens sold him to Toronto. He played with the Leafs' Rochester farm in 1959-60 but was sold to Hershey the next season. He was summoned by the Wings from the Bears in midseason and immediately made his presence known.

Last season, Young averaged 4.26 minutes per game in the penalty box to total 273 minutes for a National League record. Billy Reay, the Hawks' new coach, signed Young to his first pro contract and was instrumental in talking Owner Jim Norris and G. M. Tommy Ivan into making the deal to bring Howie to Chicago.

Traded to Chicago for Roger Crozier and Ron Ingram, June 1963.

DID YOU KNOW

... About 90 dozen pucks are consumed each season by the Hawks.

"SCOUTS' WORK IS NEVER DONE"

IN HOCKEY, baseball, or football the farm system is as strong as the scouts. The Chicago Black Hawks have two of the best in the business heading their fast growing organization.

TINY (don't call me Cecil) THOMPSON, one of the all-time great goalies, runs things out West for the Hawks while Bob Wilson takes care of the youngsters in the East.

THOMPSON, won the Vezina trophy as the Boston Bruins' goalie four times, 1930, 33, 36, and 38. He has been in the Hawks' organization since he left the Canadian Air Force in 1946. His brother, Paul, then Coach of the Hawks, hired him.

When Tommy Ivan took over as head man for the Hawks, he was expected to clean house completely. However, in Thompson he found a hard working scout who knew his players and had a record of developing some of the greatest. Ivan made several changes in his farm club direction but it points up the job Thompson was doing that he survived the changes and continues to send in reports which have resulted in some startling acquisitions for the Black Hawks.

In covering the western territory from Winnipeg on, Thompson has to fly 200 to 300 thousand miles each year, because of the wide open spaces.

Among his crop of youngsters who have made the grade are Bill Gadsby, Leo Reese, Metro Prystai, Bert Olmstead, Vic Stasiuk, Al Rollins, and Emil Francis. Among the present youngsters are Jack McKenzie, Ed Van Impe, and Aut Erickson. He is also responsible to a great extent in the Hawks' acquisition of Bill Hay from Montreal. Hay came from Calgary and when Montreal had to make some decisions on whom to keep, Thompson's reports made it imperative that Ivan should work on a deal. The Hawks paid some $25,000 for his contract and have never been sorry.

IF BOB WILSON, 60, should retire from his job as Eastern Scout for the Black Hawks tomorrow morning, he would always have one feather in his cap. It was Wilson who was responsible for bringing Bobby Hull to the Hawks.

Naturally, Tommy Ivan doesn't let his men rest on their laurels so Wilson has continued his "bird dogging" chores. But he admits he'll probably never see another Bobby. "Except for Gordie Howe, there are no such animals," Wilson says. But he still keeps looking.

Wilson played semi-pro baseball and was working in the "Nickel Belt," around Sudbury in the 30's. It was cold enough up there so he came up with the idea of freezing a sheet of ice on his farm to form a makeshift rink. Little by little teams were formed and from these the Falconbridge League was started. Out of this league came many fine hockey players like Tod Sloan and George Armstrong.

Wilson, was offered a scouting job with Toronto. Later he joined the Hawks and Tommy Ivan.

"I see these kids when they are 14 or younger. Some times they are skinny or even too short. But then you check their family back grounds and learn they will probably fill out. If they show natural ability you take it from there."

Among the current crop of Black Hawks, Wilson has signed, are Chico Maki, Kenny Wharram, Denis DeJordy, Doug Robinson, Wayne Hillman, and Phil Esposito, now at St. Louis.
